

STEWART IN DEATH

Rock Island Leader Summons
After Illness of Pneumonia at Estes Park, Colo.

Dr. J. W. Stewart, 75 years of age, 501 Eleventh street, an old and respected citizen of Rock Island and a leader in business, civic and religious circles in the city for many years, died very suddenly this morning of pneumonia, at Estes Park, Colo., where he had gone for the summer vacation.

None of his unexpected demise came without warning to family and friends in Rock Island this morning. Although his resistance was somewhat depleted by a long and serious illness of pneumonia last winter and he had gone to the west in the hope of regaining his strength, nothing of his critical condition had been known until telegrams told of his death.

Dr. Stewart, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Rosabelle, left for Estes Park a week ago last Tuesday, to spend the summer with his wife, Mrs. H. W. Randolph of Tulsa, Okla., at a cottage in the mountains.

Almost coincidental with the announcement of his death this morning a friend received a card from Dr. Stewart, in which he commented on the clean light air of the mountain country, and stated that he was profiting in health by the high altitude.

Resident Here 50 Years.
Dr. Stewart came to Rock Island more than fifty years ago, from Dayton, Ohio, where he was a practicing physician. Never since leaving his practice, he had been engaged in business occupation since that time.

He was not only prominent in a business way, but was one of the most enthusiastic and untiring workers in the field of Christian endeavor. To the Broadway Presbyterian church, of which he was a member and an elder at the time of his death, he gave unstintingly of himself in devoted service. For a period of 20 years he was superintendent of the Broadway Sunday school.

He also gave his help and patronage to the Rescue Mission, the Associated Charities and other charitable organizations, to whose interest and welfare he was always keenly alive.

Living in full accord with his convictions, Dr. Stewart was recognized as a splendid example of the best manhood and as a true exemplification of the power of a sincere Christian worker in a community.

Former Merchant.

Entering the hardware business in Rock Island, he was a member of the firm of Stewart & Montgomery. Several years ago the business was sold to the Rock Island Hardware company, and Dr. Stewart took up the real estate business, in which he was actively engaged at the time of his death.

John W. Stewart was born in Emmetsburg, Md., Jan. 21, 1845. He attended the La Fayette college in Pennsylvania and received his degree in medicine at the University of Pennsylvania. In 1869 he came to Rock Island from Dayton.

He was united in marriage in Pennsylvania to Rosa B. McLean, who preceded him in death in March, 11 years ago. The survivors are one sister, Mrs. Cochran Annan of Emmetsburg, Md., and the following children: William McLean Stewart of Rock Island; John S. Stewart of Seattle, Wash.; James E. Stewart of El Paso, Texas; Mrs. H. W. Randolph of Tulsa, Okla.; Mrs. Hiram Norton of Portland, Ore.; and Miss Rosabelle Stewart of Rock Island.

Funeral arrangements are not yet made. They will be announced later.

AGED RESIDENT ANSWERS CALL

A. F. Hill, 70 Years of Age, Dies at His Home Late Yesterday After Long Illness.

A. F. Hill, 70 years of age, a resident of Rock Island for many years, died at his home, 2324 Seventh avenue, yesterday afternoon, following an illness of several years from hardening of the arteries and the infirmities due to his advanced years.

Mr. Hill was born near Stockholm, Sweden, Sept. 1, 1849. He came to this country in 1864 and took a position at the Rock Island arsenal as foreman of the blacksmith shops. A man of kindly and winning nature, who made friends easily and held them with the charm of his personality, Mr. Hill's demise will be lamented by a vast circle who knew him as a good friend and neighbor. Although of quiet, unassuming ways, he was a power for good in the community where he had resided for so many years.

Widow Survives.

Services at the home at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon will be conducted by Rev. W. G. Ogilvie, pastor of the South Park Presbyterian church. They will be strictly private and it is requested that flowers be omitted. The Masons will have full charge of services at the grave which will be at Chippianock cemetery.
